

Recipients of the Alan Weiser Memorial Travel Awards

Since Fall 2007, several graduate students in Computational & Applied Mathematics have received the Alan Weiser Memorial Travel Awards which have helped finance their travel to national and international conferences.

Ben McClosky attended the INFORMS Annual Meeting, 11/2-7/07, in Seattle, WA and presented two talks:

- The Co-2-plex Polytope* (with Dr. Illya V. Hicks)
- A Computational Study of the Maximum Co-2-plex Problem*
(with Drs. Illya V. Hicks and Balabhaskar Balasundaram)

Kai Sun attended the IEEE/ACM 2007 Int'l Conference on Computer Aided Design (ICCAD '07), 11/5-8/07 in San Jose, CA and presented the following talk:

- Parallel Domain Decomposition for Simulation of Large Scale Power Grids* (with Dr. Danny C. Sorensen)

Alex Mammonov attended the SIAM Conference on Analysis of Partial Differential Equations (PD07), 12/10-12/07 in Meza, AR and presented the following talk:

- Solving the Electrical Impedance Tomography Problem with Optimization Techniques*

Rami Nammour attended the SIAM Conference on Imaging Science (IS08), 07/7-9/08 in San Diego, CA and presented the following talk:

- Optimal Scaling of Prestack Migration* (with Drs. William W. Symes and Eric Dussaud)

Josef Sifuentes attended the 2008 SIAM Annual Meeting, 07/7-11/08 in San Diego, CA and presented the following talk:

- Preconditioning the Lippmann-Schwinger Equations for Scattering by Thin Structures*
(with Drs. Mark Embree and Shari Moskow)
